- Estonia handed over a new package of military aid to Ukraine, which included anti-tank missiles from the Javelin system. This was reported by the Ministry of Defense of Estonia. The package also includes machine guns, ammunition for firearms, ground and floating equipment, as well as diving gear.
- Poland allocated credit for the joint production of weapons with Ukraine. This was reported by the deputy head of the Office of the President, Ihor Zhovkva. He also added that on February 2, during a meeting with the head of the Prime Minister's office, the commencement of negotiations on security guarantees for Ukraine was discussed.
- Japan transferred modern medical equipment to military medical facilities in Ukraine. This was reported by the press service of the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine. The Ministry of Defense noted that a total of five units of state-of-the-art medical equipment have been handed over as part of the project.
- The Netherlands will additionally transfer six more F-16 fighter jets to Ukraine, which were withdrawn from the contract for sale to the Draken company. This news was published on the website of the Ministry of Defense of the Netherlands.
- The European Commission and the International Finance Corporation of the World Bank Group (IFC) have signed a guarantee agreement to support investments that will contribute to inclusive and sustainable reconstruction in Ukraine. This was reported by the press service of the European Commission. According to the agreement, the EU will provide IFC with financial guarantees of up to 90 million euros to support investments in Ukraine under the IFC's Better Future Program (BFP).
- Specialized mobile teams of Czech engineers, chemists, medics, and snipers trained around a thousand Ukrainian military personnel in Poland last year as part of the European Union Military Assistance Mission in Support of Ukraine (EUMAM), as reported by the Ministry of Defense of the Czech Republic.
- The French Ministry of Foreign Affairs is summoning the Russian Ambassador, Alexei Meshkov, over the death of two French volunteers during the shelling of Beryslav (Kherson oblast). Meshkov will be presented with a protest, condemning the invasion and denouncing the disinformation campaign that Russia has launched against Paris. Moscow has actively accused and pressured France in the information field due to arms deliveries to Ukraine.

- Rheinmetall Group plans to send tens of thousands of various caliber projectiles and military equipment to Ukraine. The German conglomerate revealed its plans for this year and the next. The company intends to supply medium and large caliber ammunition, including 20mm for the Marder IFV, 40mm and 105mm for Leopard 1 tanks, and 120mm for Leopard 2 tanks. Additionally, Spain has instructed Rheinmetall Expal Munitions to deliver a significant quantity of 155-caliber ammunition to Ukraine in 2025.
- The CEO of the Turkish company Baykar, Haluk Bayraktar, confirmed that a drone production plant is already under construction in the Kyiv oblast. According to Bayraktar, the plant is in the construction phase, and it will take approximately 12 months to complete.
- Howard Buffett, the son of renowned investor Warren Buffett, has become one of the largest donors to Ukraine. By allocating over 500 million dollars for humanitarian aid, he joins the ranks of countries supporting Ukraine in the aftermath of the Russian invasion. This year, he plans to spend an additional 300 million dollars.

06.02

- Payments to Ukraine from the EU under the Ukraine Facility program (50 billion euros over 4 years) will begin in March, announced the President of the European Commission, Ursula von der Leyen. The EU Council and European Parliament have reached an agreement on a new support mechanism for Ukraine by creating the Ukrainian Fund with a budget of 50 billion euros over the next four years.

07.02

- Ukraine and Sweden are negotiating a batch of CV90 infantry fighting vehicles of Swedish production, as announced by the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine.
- The EU should assist Ukraine until victory, not just "as much as needed," stated EU High Representative Josep Borrell during a joint briefing with Ukrainian Prime Minister Shmyhal. Borrell arrived in Kyiv on an official visit on February 6. As part of the visit, he handed over the DOK-ING MV-10 demining system to the state transport service. This new delivery is part of the European Union's support package amounting to 25 million euros for humanitarian demining in Ukraine, addressing the urgent needs of Ukrainian state operators in demining activities.

- Britain will continue duty-free trade with Ukraine for almost all goods until 2029. London abolished tariffs on all its trade with Ukraine after the onset of a full-scale war. Initially set to last until March 2024, this agreement has now been extended to support Ukrainian trade.
- Japan has offered financial assistance to Ukraine for the restoration of cultural heritage, education, and media through the UN agency UNESCO. Japan plans to allocate approximately 14.6 million dollars to Ukraine this year. These funds will aid in preserving the world heritage in the historic center of Odesa, which was affected by Russian missile strikes.
- The U.S. Senate has supported the consideration of a 95 billion dollar aid package for Ukraine, Israel, and Taiwan — excluding expenditures for border protection with Mexico. The procedural vote for further review in the Senate is not final, but it enables an expedited examination of the document, allocating 60 billion dollars for Ukraine. The bill will proceed to a vote in the House of Representatives after the Senate.

09.02

This information was reported by the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine.
- The Parliament of Italy has approved the government's decision to extend military assistance to Ukraine in 2024.
- Finland has provided Ukraine with a new military aid package of approximately 190 million euros. This marks the 22nd shipment since the start of the full-scale invasion. The contents and delivery period are traditionally not disclosed.
- Ukrainian pilots are thrilled with the F-16 fighters. During training in Europe, the aircraft exceeded all their expectations. A pilot with the call sign "Phantom" told Voice of America that the training was going according to plan, with 6 months allocated for each group of pilots with equipment. Aviators already see significant prospects with these aircraft. Regarding infrastructure for the F-16s in Ukraine, the pilot says it will be ready by the time the fighters are handed over to the Armed Forces.

Military positions

- In the Volyn and Polissia directions, the operational situation remains without significant changes.
- In the Siverskyi (Chernihiv, Sumy) and Slobozhanskyi (Kharkiv) directions, Russian troops maintain a military presence in the border areas, conduct active sabotage activities to prevent the deployment of Ukrainian troops to threatened areas, and increase the density of minefields along the state border in the Belgorod Oblast.
- In the Kupiansk direction, Ukrainian defenders repelled a number of enemy attacks near Synkivka and Ivanivka (Kharkiv Oblast).
- In the Lyman direction, Ukrainian defenders repelled a number of attacks near Bilohorivka (Luhansk Oblast), Terny and Yampolivka (Donetsk Oblast).
- In the Bakhmut direction, Ukrainian soldiers repelled a series of enemy attacks near Bohdanivka, Klishchiivka, and Ivanivske in the Donetsk Oblast.
- In the Avdiivka direction, Ukrainian defenders continue to hold back the occupiers who keep trying to encircle Avdiivka. Ukrainian soldiers are steadfastly holding the line, inflicting significant losses on the Russians.
- In the Marinka direction, Ukrainian Defense Forces continue to hold back Russians in the areas of Heorhiivka and Novomykhailivka in the Donetsk Oblast.
- In the Shakhtarsk direction, Defense forces repelled the attacks of Russian occupants south of Zolota Nyva (Donetsk Oblast) and north of Pryiutne (Zaporizhzhia Oblast).
- In the Zaporizhzhia direction, Defense forces repelled the attacks of Russians west of Novopokrovka and Verbove and in the region of Robotyne
- In the Kherson direction, the Ukrainian soldiers continue to hold their positions and repel attacks by the occupying forces. Despite significant losses, the Russian army continues to try to drive Ukrainian units from their positions.

05.02

- Over the past 24 hours, there were 78 military clashes on the front line.
- Territorial defense forces repelled a Russian subversive reconnaissance group on the outskirts of the Hlukhiv community in the Sumy oblast. The soldiers started a small arms battle with ten saboteurs. Later, Ukrainian mortar launchers joined the battle. The occupiers suffered losses and retreated across the state border. The State Border Guard Service has previously noted that the Sumy oblast is the most active for sabotage and reconnaissance groups.
- The Russians have assembled 500 tanks, more than 600 combat vehicles, hundreds of howitzers, and 40,000 soldiers to attack Kupiansk, Forbes writes. It is noted that the occupiers are planning to launch a major offensive to achieve military success in the spring amid Putin's election campaign. The Armed Forces of Ukraine, despite the shortage of shells, are now actively fortifying and stockpiling FPV drones for this battle.
- The head of the Kharkiv Military Administration, Oleh Syniehubov, commented on the Forbes publication about the alleged preparation of a Russian offensive on Kupiansk. "The Russian army has been advancing in this direction since February 2022. And since the counteroffensive of the Ukrainian Armed Forces, the occupiers have not abandoned their intentions to recapture these territories, as this is a logistically important area for them," he said, and also emphasized that "the Armed Forces are ready for any further scenarios, enemy actions and a quick response to intelligence results."
- Volodymyr Zelenskyi has confirmed his intention to dismiss the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, Valerii Zaluzhnyi. He said this on the Italian TV channel Rai1, adding that he is also considering dismissing not only Zaluzhnyi but also other senior officials.
- Drone production in Ukraine increased 100 times in a year - Ministry of Digital Transformation. The adoption of about 20 laws and regulations over the past 1.5 years that accelerate the development of the UAV market in Ukraine has created some of the best conditions in the world for this area to develop.

06.02

- Over the past 24 hours, there were 126 military clashes on the front line.
- In total, since February 24, 2022, the Ukrainian military has disabled 24 Russian ships and one submarine. At the beginning of the full-scale invasion, the Russian Black Sea Fleet consisted of 74 warships. That is, about 33% of Russian vessels were disabled.
- The Special Operations Forces have uncovered another important aspect of the return of the Black Sea oil production platforms to Ukraine's control. One of the illegally seized platforms was used by Russians to enhance the operation of the Mohajer-6 UAV. Specifically, they installed equipment that increases the range and radius of its operation. This UAV was used by the occupiers to strike at critical infrastructure with Shahed kamikaze drones. In addition, the occupiers installed a Neva-B surface target detection radar on the platform. The Russians used this radar to monitor the situation in the northwestern part of the Black Sea. The successful special operation of the group of the 73rd Maritime Center of the Special Operations Forces ensured the safer movement of ships in the northwestern part of the Black Sea.
- The rate of oil refining in the Russian Federation has fallen to its lowest level in two months due to Ukrainian drone attacks on January 21 and 25, Bloomberg reports. During the week (January 25-31), Russia refined 5.41 million barrels of oil per day, which is 135,000 barrels below the average for most of December.
- Volodymyr Zelenskyi instructed the Cabinet of Ministers and the General Staff of the Armed Forces to create a new type of troops - the Unmanned Systems Forces.

07.02

- Over the past 24 hours, there were 92 military clashes on the front line.
- On the night of February 7, Russia again launched a massive missile attack on Ukraine. Air defense forces destroyed 44 out of 64 air targets.

Military positions

07.02	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Ukraine has already managed to repel more than 5,000 Russian cyberattacks, but the enemy continues to develop in this direction. This was stated by the head of the Ministry of Digital Transformation, Mykhailo Fedorov. According to him, Ukraine should not "live on the victories of 2022-2023" but should reach a new level of data protection. Also, according to Mr. Fedorov, Ukraine will soon have drones with artificial intelligence technology, and mass production of UAVs like the Russian Lancets with a range of 40 km will begin. The first contracts will be signed in the coming weeks. They will be deployed to the front soon after.
08.02	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, Valerii Zaluzhnyi, is resigning. It has been decided that it is necessary to change approaches and strategy," said Zaluzhnyi. "In the first most difficult days of the Great War, we withstood a vile and powerful enemy. We survived together. Our battle continues and changes every day. The tasks of 2022 are different from the tasks of 2024. Therefore, everyone must change and adapt to the new realities as well. To win together, too." The next day, the President awarded Valerii Zaluzhnyi the title of Hero of Ukraine. ➤ Oleksandr Syrskyi has been appointed the new Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of Ukraine. Previously, Syrskyi was the head of the Land Forces of the Armed Forces and led several defensive and offensive operations. The New York Times was one of the first to react to the appointment of the new Commander-in-Chief in Ukraine, noting that Syrskyi is a talented general who managed to successfully defend Kyiv and de-occupy Kharkiv oblast against a much larger Russian army thanks to rapid maneuvers and small unit tactics. The Western edition of Reuters called the operations conducted by Syrskyi absolutely brilliant and identified them as one of Ukraine's greatest victories during the full-scale war. The publication also emphasized that the morale of the troops during the war is above all else, for Syrskyi. His numerous visits to the front testify to this. ➤ Volodymyr Zelenskyi announced the return of 100 more prisoners to Ukraine. The rescued servicemen include 49 soldiers of the National Guard of Ukraine, 25 border guards, and 26 servicemen of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, including 11 territorial defense soldiers. All of the rescued soldiers are privates and sergeants. 84 of the rescued soldiers were defending Mariupol (including 82 defenders of Azovstal), while the rest were performing combat missions in the Donetsk and Luhansk directions. ➤ Avdiivka remains the main direction for Russia on the frontline, according to British intelligence. According to the report, over the past two weeks, Russian troops have deployed additional forces to the Avdiivka sector, increasing pressure on Ukrainian positions around the city. The Ukrainian Armed Forces continue to conduct counterattacks to ensure the safety of the main supply route.
09.02	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Over the past 24 hours, there were 65 military clashes on the front line. ➤ At night, Ukrainian air defense destroyed 10 of 16 enemy UAVs in Mykolaiv, Kherson and Kharkiv regions. ➤ Anatolii Barhylevych has been appointed the new Chief of the General Staff of the Armed Forces of Ukraine on the proposal of Chief of Staff Oleksandr Syrskyi. This was announced by President Volodymyr Zelenskyi in his evening video.
10.02	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Over the past 24 hours, there were 111 military clashes on the front line. ➤ At night and in the morning, Russian occupants once again attacked Ukraine using 31 Shahed-136/131 UAVs. Ukrainian air defense forces destroyed 23 of them.

Humanitarian crisis

- Head of the Luhansk Military Administration Artem Lysyhor reported that Russian forces are planning to implement a UAV technology module in educational institutions in the occupied regions, in particular in Luhansk Oblast. He noted that students will be taught how to assemble drones in arts and crafts classes.
- Ukraine is close to reaching pre-war export levels. First Deputy Prime Minister of Ukraine - Minister of Economy of Ukraine Yuliia Svyrydenko informed that Ukraine has reached a record level of physical exports during the full-scale invasion in January 2024. According to her, domestic manufacturers exported around 12 million tons of products. In addition, a vessel is involved in export operations for the first time and is insured against war risks by insurance UNITY. This was established by the Ukrainian government together with partners.

- The number of workers in the occupied Zaporizhzhia NPP was reduced by half. In addition, the plant's nuclear fuel is reaching the end of its service life, and this could have a serious impact on nuclear safety, announced Director General Rafael Mariano Grossi. The IAEA Director General noted that there were moments when the agency's representatives were not allowed to enter certain areas of the ZNPP.
- The Head of Kherson Oblast Military Administration, Oleksandr Prokudin, reported that three more families with four children were rescued from the temporarily occupied territories by the organization Save Ukraine. Before, on 5 January, two children were saved from occupation.

- National Resistance Center reported about the pressure on Ukrainians who are not willing to receive passports of the Russian Federation. The occupiers began to emphasize that from July 1, all Ukrainians without a Russian passport would be considered foreigners in their native land. In this case, they will need to receive a residence permit, which should be constantly confirmed. At the same time, they will have limited rights, will not have access to healthcare or benefit programs, and will not be allowed to transact with their own property.
- The Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine has approved the law on the right to biological paternity (motherhood) in case of death of a military officer, draft law 10448. This was reported by MP Iryna Herashchenko. Parliament has solved the problem of utilization of biomaterial of servicemen in case of their death. Biomaterial will be kept, and the trooper's family will have the legal right to biological paternity in case of the death of a defender.
- Russians again massively abduct locals in the temporarily occupied territories. This was announced by the National Resistance Center. The occupiers conducted a series of raids on villages in the temporarily occupied south of Ukraine, during which up to 20 local residents were taken to an unknown destination "on suspicion of 'disloyalty,'" especially due to the absence of a Russian passport. During these inspections, the village was blocked by Rosgvardia forces.

- President of Ukraine Volodymyr Zelenskyi announced the exchange of prisoners of war, as a result of which 100 more soldiers returned home from Russian captivity. Most of them are soldiers and sergeants, defenders of Mariupol and Azovstal, soldiers of the National Guard, State Border Guard Service, and the Armed Forces of Ukraine.
- Ukraine has sent 25,000 tons of humanitarian wheat to Nigeria as part of the GrainFromUkraine initiative. This was reported by The Ministry for Communities, Territories and Infrastructure Development of Ukraine. The bulk carrier SKY GATE is the first vessel this year to carry humanitarian wheat chartered by the UN World Food Program as part of GrainFromUkraine.

- In the temporarily occupied Crimea, the number of cases of resistance to Russian invaders by local residents is growing. Occupants have already registered 665 cases against locals for a pro-Ukrainian position. This was informed by the Mission of the President of Ukraine in the Autonomous Republic of Crimea.
- The Public Affairs Office of the Ministry of Defense of Ukraine stated Russia has conducted 815 chemical attacks in Ukraine since the beginning of the full-scale invasion, among them 229 cases in January 2024 only.
- A total of 40 people from the mass grave in Izium, Kharkiv Oblast, could not be identified because there is no DNA material for comparison from the victims' potential relatives. Following the liberation of Izium in September 2022, law enforcement officers discovered a mass grave in the forest on the outskirts of the town. According to the regional police, 449 bodies were recovered from it.
- In the temporarily occupied Rubizhne and Lysychansk in the Luhansk Oblast, occupants massively distribute summonses to mobilize local men. This was reported by the Luhansk regional military administration. To conduct the next wave of forced mobilization, the invaders are waiting for the elections to be completed, but only in the territory of the RF. In the occupied regions of Ukraine, the mobilization is already ongoing, so in Lysychansk and Rubizhne, men receive summonses along with a Russian passport.

- National Resistance Center informed that Russians are developing a network of "Warrior" clubs that recruit teenagers from temporarily occupied territories of Ukraine. Previously, such clubs were opened in Luhansk and Zaporizhzhia oblasts. Also, such a club, where teenagers will be trained to serve in the occupiers' army, is planned to be opened in the occupied territories of Kherson oblast.
- According to the National Resistance Center, from February 17, members of "election districts" will start visiting residents of the temporarily occupied territories and warn them of sanctions for refusing to vote in the "presidential elections in the Russian Federation." The campaign will last until March 7 in all settlements of the occupied territories. During the raid, workers will be accompanied by "Rosgvardia" soldiers, allegedly for security reasons.
